What are your expectations for your daughter's high school experience?

What role do you play in your daughter's learning? How do you assist her with her homework and other academic commitments?

Please list the other schools to which your daughter will be applying.

Learning and/or emotional concerns do not preclude admission to Madeira. If information on learning and/or emotional concerns is not provided below, The Madeira School must assume that no previous document/information exists that can assist with academic and student life planning or learning accommodations. Though sensitive, this information deserves your candor so that we might better serve your daughter.

Has your daughter been tested within the last three years by an educational psychologist or other specialist? If yes, please attach testing results.

Does your daughter receive tutoring? If yes, please tell us the frequency and subject(s).

Are there any academic or health-related accommodations that your daughter is currently receiving? What type of accommodations, if any, would you be requesting from Madeira?

Please describe any circumstances for which your daughter received attention from a physician, educational psychologist, or counselor.

Please indicate if the applicant or any of her family members has a disability which warrants special accommodation during the application process or otherwise.
