

MADEIRA

Coaches (part-time, seasonal)

The Madeira School is seeking part-time coaches (see the specific positions below). The successful candidate will have excellent coaching experience and interpersonal, communication, and organizational skills. This individual will have knowledge of the game, passion for the sport, and a desire to educate athletes on the transferable intangibles learned through team sports.

For head coaching positions, Madeira seeks candidates who can build, mentor, and develop a staff of coaches, while providing leadership and vision for the program.

Coaches will also be responsible for practice, game planning, program development, scores, and statistics. Coaches are expected to work with the Admissions and College Counseling offices.

Madeira plays ISL schools along with other independent schools in the area. Coaches are expected to assist with transporting athletes to games in school vehicles.
